Part 2 - Comments in relation to draft regulation

Clause number	Title of clause and your comment or suggestion
Clause 78 Requirement 6	Joy Global are concerned that the wording of this clause could be interpreted as requiring us to provide information in breach of our current intellectual property policies and procedures, rather than the information required by operators of our equipment to allow them to successfully operate and maintain the equipment in a safe manner. We would request that this clause be limited to only information required for safe operation and maintenance and exclude any intellectual property.
